

Parable of the Talents

Tune: An Evening Prayer

Patsy Stevens

A man gave tal - ents to his ser - - vants three.
The mas - - - ter praised the first two for their gain.
"Well done thou good and faith - ful ser - - - r - vant,
The man en - trust - ed with one tal - - - ent came.

3

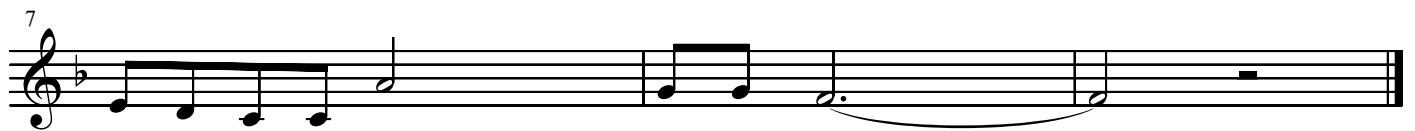

On his re - turn he'd see what they had done.
With the re - sults he was so ver - - - y pleased.
Thou has been faith - ful o - ver a few things.
His mas - - - ter was sore dis - pleased at the news.

5

The man with five gained five, The two gained two.
And then he said to each one in re - sponse.
I'll make thee ru - ler o - ver man - - - y things.
He called him wick - ed, sloth - ful and we know

7

Tal - ent one man, kept one.
Hi - s wor - ds were these:
En - ter thou the joy of thy Lord."
That this man was re - fused.
