(* following number means Christ said this same parable at a later time also as recorded by that writer) (The word we have for parable in the phrase, "This PARABLE spake Jesus unto them" in John 10:6 is PROVERB, and is the same word used in two other places as PROVERB (John 16:25, 29). In all three places the term is not PARABOLIC but PAROIMIA, meaning "a wayside discourse.")
