

Francis Scott Key

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdkey.htm>

Francis Scott Key was a

because they had overheard attack plans.

Key and his wife

lawyer in Georgetown.

In 1814 the British captured
Washington

and set the Capitol on fire.

James Madison was president when

is now in the Smithsonian Institute.

Mr. Key's friend William Beanes

the British captured
Washington.

The Ft. McHenry flag

a poem about the Star Spangled Banner.

The British agreed to release
Dr. Beanes

had eleven children.

The British wouldn't let Key and his friends leave

placed under guard on a ship.

Key and his friends were

see the large flag waving.

From the ship he could

was set to music.

Key wrote

because he had saved
British soldiers.

Key's poem

had been captured by the British.