

Martin Luther King Jr.

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdking.htm>

Martin Luther King was born in a time	when black people did not have the same rights as others.
He started to school when	thirty times for his resistance.
Miss Lemon, his teacher	he began to study the teachings of Gandhi.
Each day the children in his class sang	refused to give up her seat on a bus.
He graduated from college when	"Lift Every Voice and Sing".
While at Crozer Theological Seminary	he was only nineteen years old.
Mahatma Gandhi advocated	lasted for more than a year.
In 1955 Rosa Parks	taught him to take pride in his heritage.
The bus boycott	he was five years old.
In December 1956 the Supreme Court ruled	that bus segregation was unlawful.
When blacks were refused	service at lunch counters they staged "sit-ins".
Dr. King was put in jail	passive resistance and peaceful protests.