Prior to the event we are about to study Jesus had restored life to the daughter of Jairus. His fame spread throughout the land. As he was leaving the area two blind men followed him. They had probably heard people talking about the miracles Jesus had been performing. If Jesus could do those things, he could make them well also!

They said to him, "Son of David, have mercy on us." They continued to follow him until he came into a house. Jesus said to them, "Do you believe I am able to do this?" "Oh, yes Lord! We believe that you can make us see again." He touched their eyes and said, "Let it happen then, just as you believe!"

Immediately the men could see everything around them. Jesus told them not to tell anyone, but of course, you know what they did. They went about telling everyone that Jesus had made them well and now they were able to see. They were so excited they could not keep the good news to themselves.

As Jesus was leaving they brought to him a man who could not speak because he was possessed with a devil. He cast the devil out and the man was able to speak. The people marveled saying, "We have never seen anything like this in Israel!"

Many commentators consider the healing of the blind men and the dumb man as one miracle since they are in the same chapter.
