Jesus had been betrayed by Judas, one of his disciples, and the soldiers were about to arrest him. One of his followers, Simon Peter was ready to defend his master.

He said, "Lord shall we attack them with a sword?"

Without waiting for an answer, Peter struck the ear of Malchus, servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

Jesus said, "Stop! No more of this." and he touched the servant's ear and restored it.

All four writers of the gospels tell about the servant's ear being cut off, but only Luke, the physician, records the miracle of the restoration of his ear by Jesus.
