

Come Let Us Sing About Colors
by Patsy Stevens

Tune:Chorus of Chiapanecas (Mexican Hand Clap Song)

Come let us sing about red, rojo,
Come let us sing about red, rojo,
Come let us sing about red, rojo,
The pretty manzana* is red, ROJO!

Come let us sing about green, verde,
Come let us sing about green, verde,
Come let us sing about green, verde,
The grass in our yarda* is green. VERDE!

Come let us sing about blue, azul,
Come let us sing about blue, azul,
Come let us sing about blue, azul,
Cielo* above us is blue, AZUL!

Come let us sing about purple,morado,
Come let us sing about purple,morado,
Come let us sing about purple,morado,
Sweet-tasting uvas* are purple, MORADO!

Come let us sing about yellow, amarillo,
Come let us sing about yellow, amarillo,
Come let us sing about yellow, amarillo,
Butter for our pan* is yellow, AMARILLO!

Come let us sing about brown, marrón,
The soil in our jardin* is brown, MARRÓN!
(Alternate for brown is "café")

Come let us sing about black, negro,
Come let us sing about black, negro,
Come let us sing about black, negro,
The darkness of noche* is black, NEGRO!

Come let us sing about gray, gris,
Come let us sing about gray, gris,
Come let us sing about gray, gris,
The little ratón* is gray, GRIS!

Come let us sing about orange, anaranjado,
Come let us sing about orange, anaranjado,
Come let us sing about orange, anaranjado,
The juicy naranja* is orange, ANARANJADO!
(The color orange can also be "naranja")

Come let us sing about pink, rosado,
Come let us sing about pink, rosado,
Come let us sing about pink, rosado,
The sweet-smelling rosa* is pink, ROSADO!

Come let us sing about tan, crema,
Come let us sing about tan, crema,
Come let us sing about tan, crema,
The little cachorro* is tan, CREMA!
