

Song: Animals in Line
by Patsy Stevens

El gato is the first in line ,primero, primero,
El gato is the first in line, pri-me-e-ro.

El perro is the second in line ,segundo, segundo,
El perro is the second in line, se-gu-un-do.

La oveja is the third in line, tercero, tercero,
La oveja is the third in line, ter-cer-er-o.

El cerdo is the fourth in line ,cuarto, cuarto,
El cerdo is the fourth in line, cuar-ar-to.

El pato is the fifth in line ,quinto, quinto,
El pato is the fifth in line, quin-in-to.

El tigre is the sixth in line ,sexto, sexto,
El tigre is the sixth in line, se-ex-to.

El elefante is the seventh in line ,séptimo, séptimo,
El elefante is the seventh in line, sé-é-ép-timo.

El león is the eighth in line ,octavo, octavo,
El león is the eighth in line, o-to-o-vo.

El hipopotamo is the ninth in line ,novena, novena,
El hipopotamo is the ninth in line, no-ve-e-no.

La cebra is the tenth in line ,décimo, décimo,
La cebra is the tenth in line, dé-é-é-cimo.

El leopardo is the eleventh in line ,once, once,
El leopardo is the eleventh in line, on-ce.

El burro is the twelfth in line ,doce, doce,
El burro is the twelfth in line, do-ce.

This song introduces twelve animals in Spanish and the ordinal words for first-tenth.
After "tenth", the number word is used to denote an ordinal number.

Song courtesy of Garden of Praise <http://gardenofpraise.com>

Non-profit duplication permitted

