

David and the Giant

The giant would call, "Send someone to fight with me!"

David was brave. He was not afraid of the giant. He only had a sling and five smooth stones. God was his helper, and he was able to win. They took him to see the king.

"Who are you?" asked the king.

"I am the son of Jesse," said David.

David and Jonathan

Who was David's friend? His name was Jonathan. He gave David his robe, sword, bow, and belt.

Jonathan said, "My father, the king, wants to hurt you."

After they talked, David went away.
